

KPMG: 60 years at the service of positive growth

KPMG is a global network of independent member firms offering audit, tax and advisory services. The firms work closely with clients, helping them to mitigate risks and grasp opportunities. KPMG member firms can be found in 152 countries.

Present in Italy for over 60 years, 3,000 people led by 195 Partners now work for KPMG in 26 offices throughout the country. Sustaining and enhancing the quality of this professional workforce is KPMG's primary objective. With over 5,000 clients and a portfolio of services that responds to the most particular needs of national and international clients, KPMG is recognized as the most important professional services network in Italy.

The KPMG Global Code of Conduct outlines the standards of ethical conduct and the underlying responsibility towards the community in which we work. This commitment has progressively transformed into a strategy that intends to develop systematic activities in the community such as voluntary work, philanthropy and professional support involving our people, their skills and know-how.

In this context KPMG is dedicated to the fight against infant abandonment, promoting the ninna ho campaign informing mothers in difficulty with an unwanted pregnancy that there is a legal alternative to abandoning their child.

Find out more about KPMG at: www.kpmg.com/it